

Communications Committee:

The Communication Committee formally known as the Publications Committee is responsible for reviewing all communication of the district such as newsletters, flyers, workshop announcement and website content. The Communications Committee is also responsible for taking pictures at meetings and events and helping maintain the history of the District.